SHANE MOORE

AGI Operations Manager, Swift Current, Saskatchewan

Shane Moore joined AGI six years ago to oversee daily manufacturing operations in the Swift Current, Saskatchewan plant, which produces portable grain handling equipment. Responsible for a team of 115 employees, Moore manages production, quality and safety priorities. Raised on a mixed farm in southern Saskatchewan, he has built a diverse career across management, operations, technical service and marketing—experience gained through business ownership and roles with major agricultural companies across North America.
